WARM SUMMER GREETINGS from Stephen Burdick Design! We've received new business and returning customers, and were honored by awards for our work. Project descriptions are on-line at www.stephenburdickdesign.com, and some print samples are available on request. Here's the latest:

A PEACEFUL PROMOTION: We've enclosed a sample of a recent collaboration with Red Sun Press. As a worker-owned printing company dedicated to social justice, they invited us to join with a group of activist/artists creating artwork on the theme of peace. The final art was presented in a postcard-series invitation to an event launching the printer's new color press, and as a souvenir poster to display both the artists' and printer's talents.

NEW CLIENTS: International Physicians for the Prevention on Nuclear War (IPPNW) hired us to design a fundraising mailer. Titled "Voice and Vision," the kit appeals to a generation of activists passing the torch to young medical students working toward a nuclear weapons-free future. It includes a folder with tiered inserts, a brochure, stickers, return envelope, and the "disarming" magnet shown above. Response has been glowing!

We created a portable display for IPPNW's Aiming for Prevention program, featuring their One Bullet Story, describing the effects that one bullet injury can have on the lives and finances of a community. By highlighting the plight of the victims through their own testimony, they aim to convince people of the necessity for small arms abolition. The modular display, with presentation CD and brochures, traveled to events in South Africa and the United Nations.

We designed a Web site for Ganesa Garden Design of Los Angeles to reflecting their "zen" approach to garden and landscape design. The site, www.ganesagardendesign.com, includes an on-line portfolio, biography, contact info, with sketched plans and photos of finished projects, linked with the terms "Beauty," "Bounty," and "Bliss."

RETURN OF THE HAPPY CLIENT: Wainwright Bank returned to us for the design their 2005 Annual Report emulating the graphic style of their new Web site (launching later this month). A pdf version can be downloaded at www.wainwrightbank.com.

Nantucket Wine Festival contracted us to update their graphics to promote the 10th anniversary of their wine and fine dining festivities. The project included advertising, program design, posters, tickets and environmental graphics. Graphics incorporated the artwork of local fine artist Kerry Hallam.

AWARDS: While our favorite recognition is the comments (and returning business!) we get from satisfied clients, our work has recently received these honors from the design community:

 Marcam Creative Awards honored our self-promotional hit: 2005 Galápagos Sketchbook – an illustrated booklet of impressions from a trip to las islas encantadas off the coast of Ecuador.

 Summit Creative Awards selected our design for the 2004 Wainwright Bank Annual Report; and the illustration of our Buenos Aires Valentine, a sketchbook from our adventures in Argentina.

 Communicator Awards awarded our logo design for Project Place's HomePlate enterprise, book design for Wainwright Bank's Social Justice History; and illustration for our 2005 holiday greeting (shown here).

KEEP INFORMED: Download this and our past newsletters on-line at www.stephenburdickdesign.com/sbdnews.html. If your addressed contact is outdated or incorrect, help us update our snail-mail list by emailing us at sbdesign@shore.net Cheers!
